

DOMINICK REUTER | PHOTOJOURNALIST

documentary photography + portraits + multimedia

20 McTernan St #302 | Cambridge, MA 02139 | 617.935.8347 | dominick@reuterphoto.com

summary of qualifications

- Professional photographer of 5 years
- Highly skilled with Mac OSX
- Able to deliver quality content on tight deadline
- Strong documentary and portrait skills
- Proficient with new media tools
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills

experience

Dominick Reuter Photography 2005 - present

- Freelance photographer serving clients in the educational, athletic and editorial fields.
- Clients include: the Boston Red Sox, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, the European Pressphoto Agency, Attorney General Martha Coakley, Boston University, Harvard University, Tufts University, The Quincy Patriot Ledger, and the Living Earth Foundation UK.
- Images appeared in: The New York Times, The Boston Globe, the London Guardian, Red Sox Magazine, the Harvard Gazette, communications materials for Martha Coakley for Senate campaign.

Boston University – College of Communication 2008 - present

- Senior Media Technician in charge of training and support for the Photojournalism facilities and equipment.
- Duties include managing staff of 5-7 lab assistants, renting out photo equipment, administering Macintosh computer lab and server environment, tutoring students on technical elements of photography and multimedia, monitoring and maintaining traditional wet darkroom, and diagnosing and resolving technology issues affecting students and faculty.

Sports Institute at Boston University 2009 - present

- Multimedia teacher for the summer sports journalism workshop hosted at the College of Communication.
- Intensive month-long workshop trains aspiring journalists to use the tools of new media in the field of sports journalism.
- Topics covered include basic photography, digital video editing and multimedia, using content management systems, and self-publishing on the web.

Harvard University – Office of News and Public Affairs spring 2007

- Photography intern, charged with staff duties of providing photo coverage of Harvard for print, web, and archival use.
- Additionally contributed multimedia presentations and assisted staff on large projects.

education

Boston University, M.S. Journalism 2010 - present

College of Communication, International Reporting – Pursuing advanced degree emphasizing international and cross-cultural journalism, anthropology and foreign affairs on a part-time basis.

Boston University, B.S. Journalism 2004 - 2008

College of Communication, Photojournalism – Completed degree in journalism emphasizing photography and multimedia, with a minor concentration in history, particularly North American politics and race relations.

skills

In addition to his photographic talents, Dominick possesses strong writing and verbal skills. As a media tech, he has especially high proficiency with Macintosh OSX, Adobe Photoshop, Final Cut Pro, and other relevant software. In what's left of his free time, Dominick skips trips for his friends, sailing small craft around the Boston Harbor Islands and Massachusetts Bay.

references

- Peter Southwick – pasouth@bu.edu - 617.353.3463
- Justin Ide – justin_ide@harvard.edu - 617.495.8837
- Steve Haines – hainesimages@comcast.net - 617.895.7312
- Michael Ivins – mivins@redsox.com - 617.226.6752